

Electric Scissor Lift Table

Electric Scissor Lift Table is a multifunctional lifting and unloading mechanical equipment and the lifting system of the electric lifting platform, which is driven by hydraulic pressure. The shear fork mechanical structure makes the lifting platform have high stability, wide operation platform and high bearing capacity, so that the range of high-altitude operation is larger and suitable for multiple people to work at the same time. It makes high-altitude operation more efficient and safer.

1.Introduction of the Electric Scissor Lift Table

Electric Table Lifters are divided into: scissor lifting platform, aluminum alloy lifting platform vehicle, sleeve cylinder lifting platform, curved arm lifting platform, fixed lifting platform, mobile lifting platform, stage lifting platform vehicle, etc. Electric scissor Table Lifter is a special equipment for high-altitude operation with vertical lifting and wide indoor and outdoor applications. It can be widely used for equipment maintenance, indoor and outdoor mechanical installation, equipment maintenance and building maintenance of stations, docks, bridges, halls and plants. Electric scissor Table Lifter is mainly used for lifting, loading and unloading of goods in the logistics industry, production lines, basement to floor, as well as lifting stage, lifting console, etc. The product has stable structure, low failure rate, reliable operation, safety and efficiency, simple and convenient maintenance. Electric scissor Table Lifter has novel design, reasonable mechanism and convenient use. It is suitable for barrel loading, unloading, handling and stacking in factories, workshops, warehouses and oil depots. It is especially suitable for dumping or batching in chemical and food workshops. It can load, unload and stack heavy objects, and cooperate with the hydraulic barrel truck, which can greatly improve the work efficiency and reduce the labor intensity of workers, It can also be refitted for loading, unloading and lifting heavy objects. It is a new ideal multi-purpose loading and unloading machinery
